

Mo and Jaz's Story

Here are Mo and Jaz. They love watching videos online.

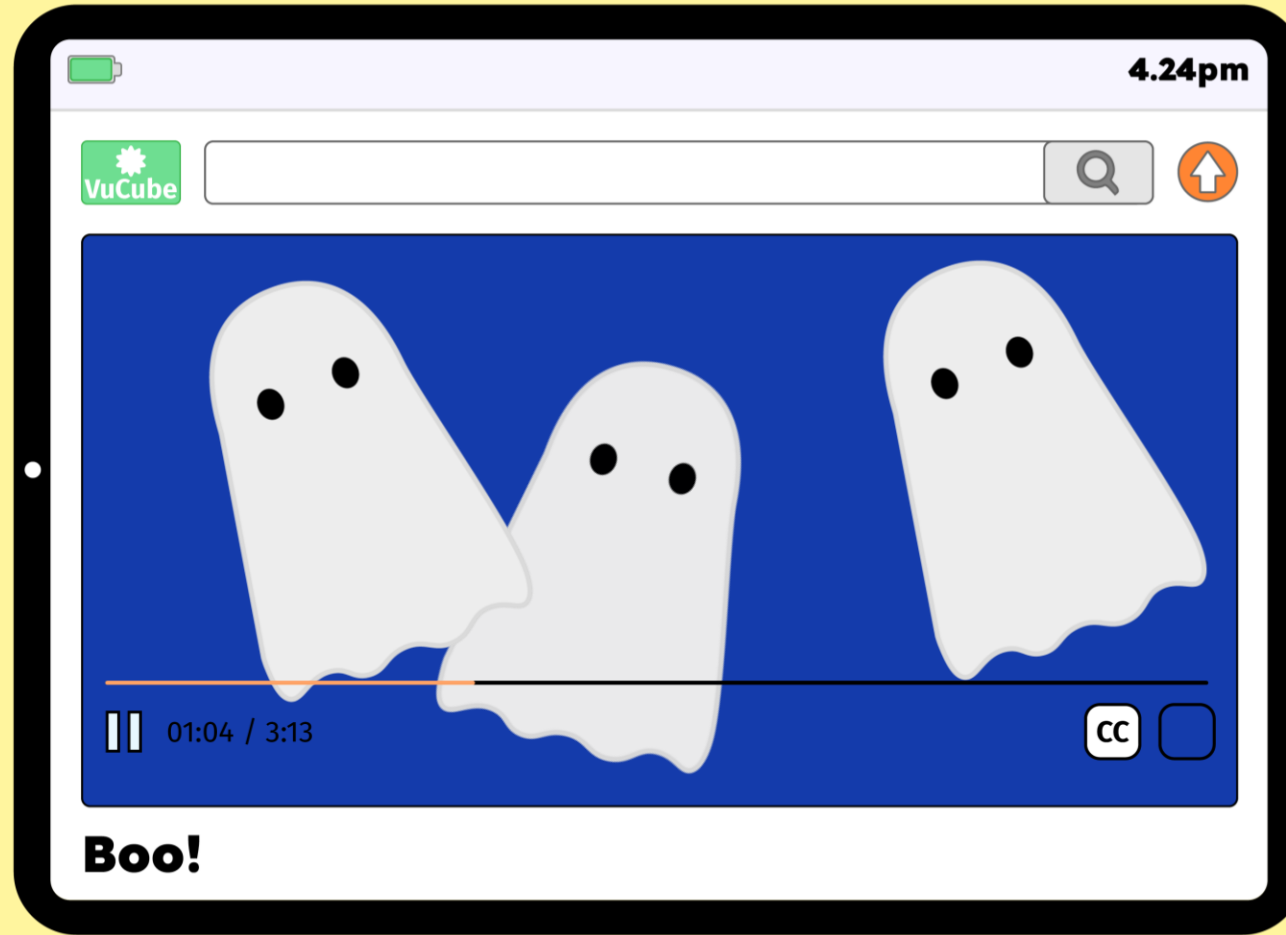

They are watching one of their favourite videos about penguins.

But at the end, the video changes and a new one starts playing.

This one is not about penguins, it is scary.

“I don’t like this video,” says Mo. “I feel worried.”
“I have a funny feeling in my tummy,” says Jaz. “I don’t like it either.”

QUESTIONS

 How are Mo and Jaz feeling?

 What should Mo and Jaz do next?

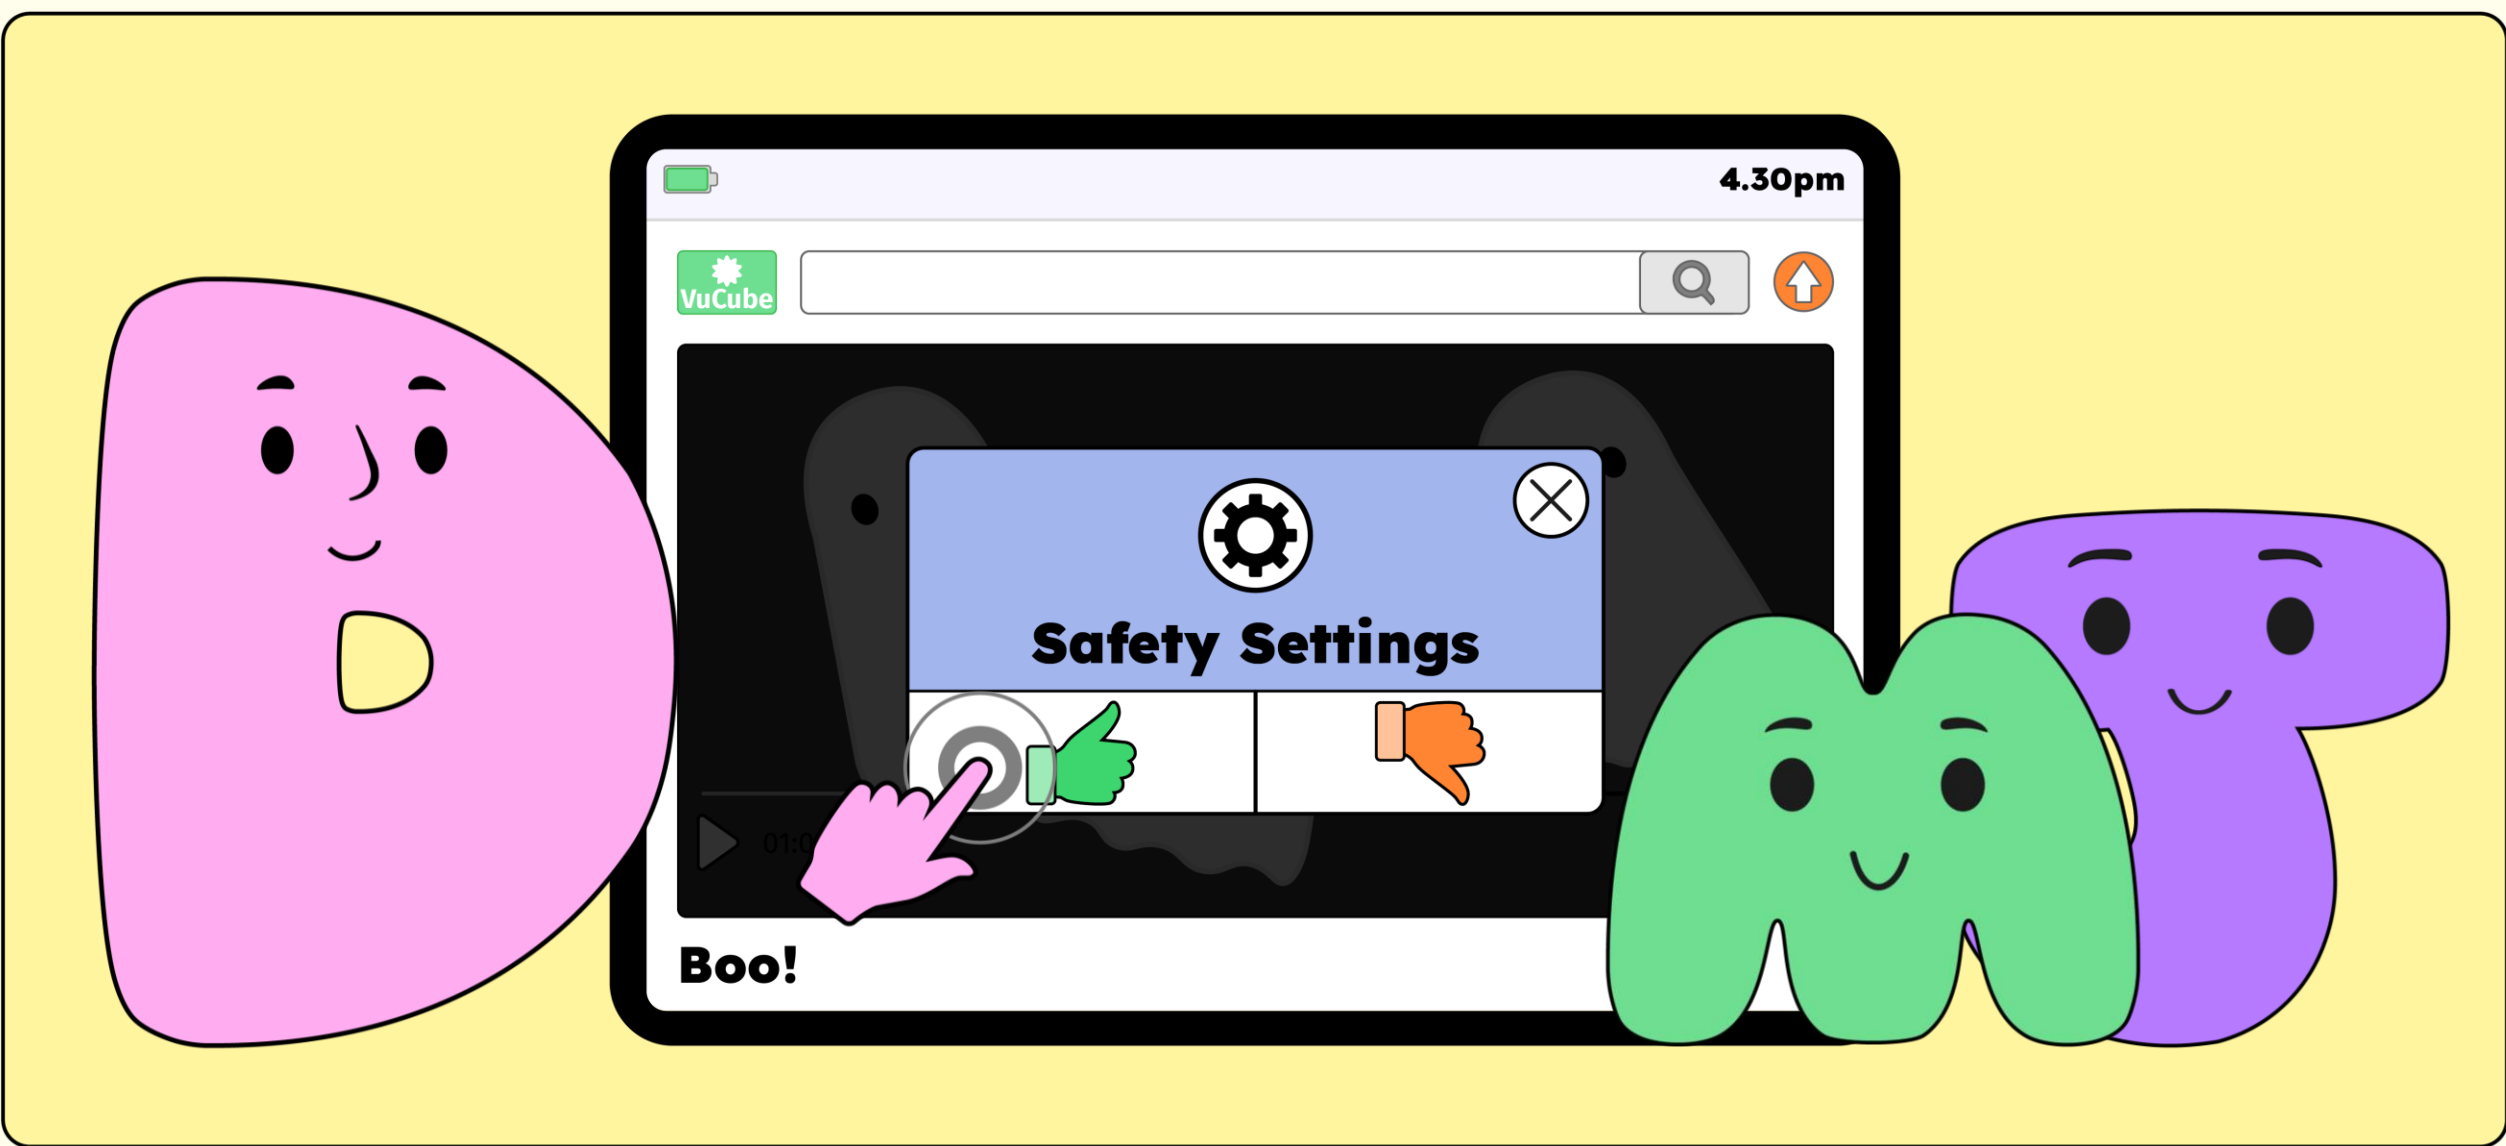

Mo and Jaz stop watching the video and go to find Dad.

“Dad, there’s something scary on the tablet and we don’t want to watch it,” says Jaz.

“Thank you for coming to tell me,” replies Dad. “I’m sorry you saw something that made you feel worried. Asking for help was the right thing to do.”

Dad checks the safety settings on the tablet and puts the tablet away. “Shall we go outside to play?” he asks.

Mo and Jaz feel much better. Remember, if you see something online that makes you feel worried or upset, you don't have to carry on looking at it.

Always tell a grown-up if something changes online that makes you feel worried or upset.
