

What does RESPECT look like at Old Town Infant School and Nursery?

We have kind hands, feet and use kind words.

- We do not hit, kick or hurt others.
- We look after our own, and other peoples' property.
- We can let a grown-up know if someone has been unkind.
- We do not swear, call people names or say unkind things to others.
- We look after our family members and pets.

We take turns and share.

- We can wait for our turn.
- We don't get cross if we cannot go first in a game.
- We can play alongside others.
- We try to look after everything in our school.
- We can share toys/resources with others.
- We don't snatch things.
- We can let a grown-up know if something has gone wrong.

We listen to the thoughts and feelings of others.

- We can sit quietly and listen to others when they are speaking.
- We do not interrupt.
- We put our hand up if we want to say something/ask a question.
- We understand if someone's view may be different to our own.
- We do not laugh at other peoples' thoughts or ideas.
- We are considerate of how other people may be feeling and will always be kind to them.
- We look after our friends if they are feeling sad.

We have good manners and treat each other how we would like to be treated.

- We are polite.
- We remember to say 'please' and 'thank you'.
- We help our friends if they get stuck.
- We look after our friends if they hurt themselves.
- We are role models for the school.
- We hold the door open for others.
- We say 'good morning' at the start of each day.
- We are always honest.

We take pride in the achievements of others.

- We encourage our friends and family members to try new things and do their best.
- We are proud of our friends and family.
- We share the successes of our families and friends with others.
- We are happy for our friends/family when they win something or do well.

We celebrate similarities and differences between people.

- We like to learn about different cultures.
- We know that people have different faiths and beliefs.
- We do not say unkind words about people being different to us.
- We recognise that people look different and have different likes/dislikes/interests.

Respectful Remy
